Erasmus School of Economics Strategy 2027 Our Strategic Pillars

Who is it for?

Students & alumni, academic community, society.

Our Employees

- We are professionals who collaborate in diverse, inclusive, and cooperative teams.
- We connect with external developments and collaborate with partners in- and outside the School.
- · Employees experience work happiness and feel part of the School's community.
- Academic and Professional Support Staff are partners in education and research.

Our Business Operations

- Our business operations facilitate education and research in a sustainable and excellent manner.
- We offer a professional, stimulating and modern working environment.
- Our policies, processes and systems are transparent, in order and coordinated.
- We use data as source to monitor, improve, and realise our strategic goals.

Our Commitments

Quality first - Integration excellent research with high quality education - Economic focus leading to academic and societal impact.

Our Ambition

Erasmus School of Economics is known for excellent futureoriented education and research. We contribute to a sustainable society and the challenges of our time.

Our Foundation

Our Education

- We offer a vibrant, inclusive academic environment with engaged and committed students, staff and alumni.
- We provide high-quality programmes that link top research with practice and societal challenges.
- Our programmes are student-centered and apply innovative didactics.

Our Research

- · Quality over quantity.
- Our relevant and fundamental research contributes to societal challenges and SDGs.
- We stimulate academic integrity, professionalism, freedom, team science, and open science.
- We are a stepping stone for PhDs and postdocs.

Our Partners, Community and Societal Impact

- We build and maintain a strong network with external partners to facilitate impact.
- We closely cooperate with ESE-affiliated companies.
- We provide academic life-long-learning programmes for alumni and other professionals.
- We offer a knowledge base that contributes to local community and beyond.

Our Values

Connecting - Entrepreneurial -(Socially) Committed – International – Cooperative - Inclusive and Open-minded