

Overview of commitments EUR

Source: EUR Declaration on climate and ecological emergency

Date: February 2023

Commitment	Deadline
To have a net positive impact on climate and ecosystems , including greenhouse emissions, incl indirect emissions in the value chain, ecological impact and restoration of biodiversity and measures related to education, research and operation).	2030
Map out what is needed to achieve this, leading to a transition plan .	2023
Sustainability education for all students , including map out how sustainability is addressed in educational programmes.	2 nd half of 2023 (via dashboard)
Guidelines for relationships with industry , including map relations that have a major impact on climate and ecosystems.	Working Group Q1. 1 st report Q3.
Dialogue with EUR Community and partners on industry relations and values such as academic freedom and independence of scientific research resulting in a guideline leading to positive impact on climate and ecosystems being an explicit starting point of collaborations.	Draft guideline in 2023
More strategic investment in developing research competencies to contribute to faster restoration of climate, ecosystems and a more equitable society.	Formulated as an ambition
Collaboration between faculties is encouraged recognizing that sustainability transition can only be realised interdisciplinarity.	Formulated as an ambition
Insight into how research papers touch upon the SDGs via SDG Mapper.	No deadline mentioned
Deployment of strategic resources to promote research collaborations in which social and ecological challenges are central .	Formulated as an ambition
Mapping EUR's impact on climate and ecosystems , including call upon all to reduce emissions from and guidelines to be established for the use of carbon credits to offset emissions that cannot be avoided.	No deadline mentioned
Vegan campus by 2030 will be accelerated by only vegetarian catering and development of a pilot for a vegetarian meal offered as a discount for three months.	As of Q2
EUR's Sustainability Programme will be updated as a result of the MTR of EUR's strategy, including an expansion and involving the EUR Community.	Formulated as an ambition
Annual sustainability report which also includes the results of sustainability activities of the private limited companies (starting 2023) and a publicly accessible dashboard	Annually