Context / Reason
Between October 31st and November 10th 2023, the theater performance Mindlab was performed 14 times by the TheaterMakers Radio Kootwijk at the EUR Pavilion. The University Council has been informed about this event in the first cycle of 2023/2024 through an informative cover note. Currently, want to share the first evaluation of Mindlab with the University Council.

Jurisdiction UC / Question to the UC
Through this informative cover note, members of the University Council are asked to take note of the first evaluation of Mindlab.

Short Summary
This evaluation includes a reflection on the performance, the organisation of the event, and the attendance rate. For this evaluation we have analysed all handwritten feedback cards (collected during the event) and digital feedback (collected after the event through the online evaluation form and e-mail). Mindlab's performances have generally been well attended and positively received. A further elaboration on the topic can be found in the memo attached to this cover note.

Follow-up process
In Q2 of 2024 we will share with you a second evaluation, focussed on the follow-up on Mindlab. In that evaluation we will report on the actions and interventions related to social safety that faculties have undertaken since Mindlab. This, in order to answer the question how effective Mindlab has been as an organisation-wide intervention to open up conversation about (and encourage training on) both wanted and unwanted behaviour.
