Dear Chair and members of the University Council,

On behalf of the Faculty Council of the Rotterdam School of Management (RSM) and the School Council of the Erasmus School of Economics (ESE), we are writing to you once again to request your attention to the letter from December 4th, 2023, regarding the current university opening hours policy (openingsurenbeleid).

Earlier this year, the School Council of the Erasmus School of Economics sent a letter to this University Council expressing the general dissatisfaction of its students and staff with the newly implemented policy.

It follows that, after extensive consultation between ESE's School Council and RSM's Faculty Council, we concluded that the dissatisfaction is shared between our institutions. Thus, acting in the best interests of our constituencies, this letter summarises our joint efforts in writing to you on behalf of the two largest faculties of this University.

We would like to draw your attention to your Council's response, which indicated that an evaluation would take place in April 2024. Despite this promise, we have yet to hear from you on this matter. We would therefore like to request you to still send this evaluation, or to hold an evaluation if it has not taken place yet.

Attached to this letter is the original letter from the ESE School Council and your reply stating that an update would be provided by April 2024 at the latest.

Yours sincerely,

Quinten de Gruijter, chair ESE School Council

Richard Brunnquell de Stachelski, chair RSM Faculty Council

Dear Chair and members of the University Council,

The School Council of Erasmus School of Economics requests your special attention for the situation around the opening hours of the office buildings at the EUR campus.

Enclosed you find two letters the School Council received from two different departments from the Erasmus School of Economics, stating their concerns and objections with regards to the restricted opening hours of the office buildings. With this letter, the School Council underwrites these concerns, brings them to the attention of the University Council again and asks for an update on this topic.

Next to this, the School Council understands that the effect of the restricted opening hours is being evaluated. The School Council would like to receive the outcome of this evaluation.

Yours sincerely, on behalf of the school council,

O.F. de Gruijter
Chair School Council

Hi Suzanne,

Afgelopen dinsdag is de brief behandeld tijdens de vergadering van de Universiteitsraad. Hierbij geef ik graag een terugkoppeling van de uitkomst van de bespreking.

De UC heeft besloten het verzoek op dit moment niet in behandeling te nemen, omdat de UC van mening is dat dit beter door het College van Bestuur zou kunnen worden afgehandeld. Het advies / verzoek is daarom om de brief direct aan het CvB te richten.

De UC besloot echter wel om de brief in april opnieuw ter tafel te brengen om het openingsurenbeleid, een jaar na de invoering ervan, te kunnen evalueren.
